

Benefits of Subscription

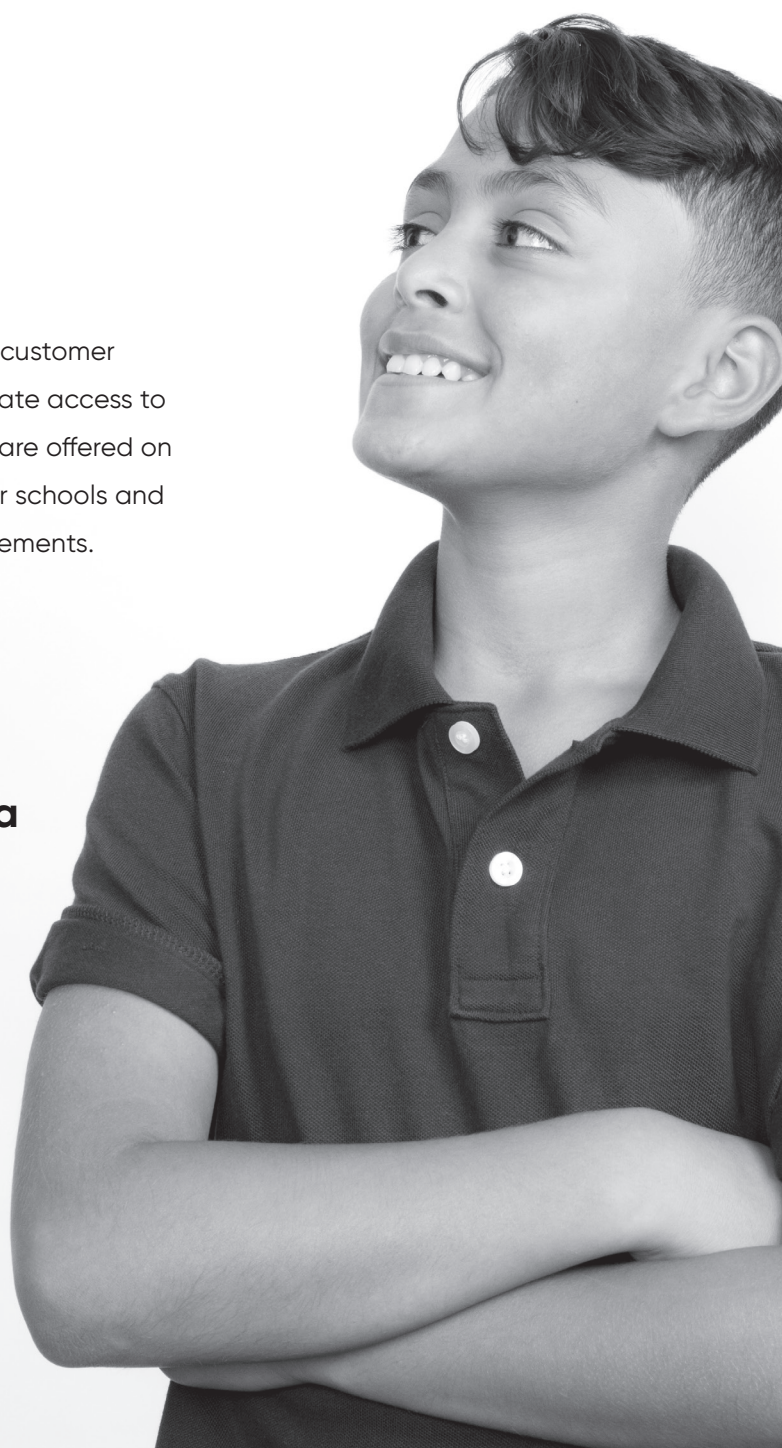

General FAQ

1 What are the general benefits of digital subscriptions?

Subscriptions offer a more flexible and personalized customer experience. Teachers and students will have immediate access to product updates and enhancements. Subscriptions are offered on a yearly basis and provide flexible pricing options for schools and districts in order to meet their implementation requirements.

2 What products will be offered as a subscription?

- READ 180[®]
- System 44[®]
- iRead[®]
- MATH 180[®]
- Waggle[®]
- Writable[®]
- Amira Assessment & Practice
- Reading Counts![®]
- Reading Inventory[®]
- Phonics Inventory[®]

3 How will subscriptions benefit teachers and students?

Flexible and affordable

- Subscriptions allow schools to service a greater number of students who need comprehensive intervention and supplemental solutions.
- Administrators and teachers have the flexibility to choose how many students need the solution and for how long.
- Managing yearly budgets is more predictable and consistent from year to year.

Automatic product updates

- Ongoing product updates and enhancements will automatically “appear” within the software when ready, providing you with instant access to new features and content.

Ongoing support throughout the school year

- Support will be available throughout the school year—on demand, in person, and as needed.
- Receive regular touchpoints to help optimize program usage and drive classroom success.
- Implementation packages, including virtual and in-person blended coaching options, will be available for teachers and administrators.

4 What comes with a subscription purchase?

Teachers will receive teacher licenses for free when student licenses are purchased. Classroom materials must be purchased separately.
